Topic: Starting Your Own Firm

Linda Jadwin of Community Capital Development will discuss owning your own firm. Do you know some of the common mistakes businesses make? Do you understand what the break-even point is? Bring your questions about how to find financing and what the banks are looking for and how to set yourself up for success!

Linda Jadwin is a native Tacoman. She attended Washington State University and has a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration. Her career has ranged from export business owner to professional fundraiser with retail and construction management in between. She has been a part of Community Capital Development since late 2006, started the South Sound Womens Business Center and the VOTE (Veterans Outreach for Training and Education) program and is now overseeing three additional centers. She is active in the Tacoma community and named a Woman of Influence by the Business Examiner in 2010.

Nominating Committee

Members are needed to serve on the ASWA Seattle Board of Directors and various committees for 2012-2013. There are still plenty of important positions which need to be filled. This is the best way to maximize the value of your ASWA membership and to give back to the chapter. Please contact president@aswaseattle.org or fill out the Volunteer Sign Up Form at the list of committee positions if you want to know more about getting involved.

Urgent Need for Help with Arrangements Committee

We have an urgent need for help this year with the Arrangements Committee. The Arrangements Committee is the committee that is responsible for monthly dinner meetings, including: collecting dinner meeting reservations, coordinating with catering, greeting and checking in members and guests at dinner meetings and ensuring the monthly dinner meetings run smoothly. This is a great committee to get to know your fellow members. If you can help with the Arrangements Committee this year, even a little bit, please send an email to vpcommunications@aswaseattle.org.
